

trying to help them. Pets are family members and people that have them can relate to how they would feel if their pet was shot and killed. We want them to know that most people value the life

com/page2.html or mail your donation to Sadie Dog Fund – 2224 Heather Lane – Lincoln, NE 68512. All $500 matches and any other donations are appreciated.

48 dogs in 2015

donations are used to help dogs and their families or to promote the fund. We are dedicated to "Saving Dogs' Lives and Keeping Them At Home." Sadly, it didn't work out this way for Copper and his family.

Coalition for Pet Protection introduces first 'Paws around Town' photo contest

BY WILDA LYONS

Coalition for Pet Protection

Coalition for Pet Protection is holding its first quarterly "Paws around Town" photo contest, with voting later this month. This is a great way to share your favorite feline or dog picture, and help bring awareness to CPP'S programs.

Winning entries will be part of CPP'S "Your Change Changes Lives" ongoing campaign. The two winning pictures will be featured on the donation jars during the last three months of 2015. These jars are located at many businesses around Lincoln.

Photo submissions must be landscape format, and can be color or black and white. Non-professional photographs only; limit of 2 entries per household. The contest is open to Lincoln/Lancaster County residents, and deadline for pictures is midnight Monday, Sept 21. Voting will be through CPP'S website, www.petcoalition.org, and will be accepted for four days, Sept. 22 through midnight Friday, Sept. 25.

Entries can be sent through the above website, or to Traci@petcoalition.

org. Businesses interested in being part of this campaign may leave a message on CPP'S hotline at (402) 434-7922.

The Coalition for Pet Protection, founded in 1992, offers an animal food pantry which features dog and cat food. CPP also offers financial assistance for medical care for felines. All donations are used locally, and are tax deductible.

CPP is a registered non-profit and is a 501(c)(3). Follow us on Twitter and FaceBook https://twitter.com/ CPP_Lincoln and <https://www.facebook.com/PetCoalition>.