Look for Meow Marketplace at Friedens Lutheran flea market

by Wilda Lyons / Coalition for Pet Protection Updated Mar 30, 2016

The Coalition for Pet Protection will part of the Friedens Lutheran Church annual Flea Market to be held Friday and Saturday, April 29-30, at the church, Sixth and D streets, in the historic South Bottoms District. Hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. both days.

Our Meow Marketplace will feature pet bandannas, car charms, and many unique items. Mint-condition Precious Moments Collectibles will be available for sale.

Raffle tickets for a dinner and a movie will also be sold. Tickets will $4 each or 6 for $20, for a prize package valued at $75. All proceeds are used locally to help animals.

CPP operates an animal food pantry, and offers assistance for emergency medical care for felines.

The Coalition for Pet Protection was founded in 1992. It is a non-profit, 501 (c)(3) organization. All donations are tax-deductible.
